End of Life Care for Palliative Patients

A must for clinicians supporting people dying in any care setting, and their families.

Facilitated by experienced palliative care clinicians.

Refresh your knowledge of:

- the importance of recognising dying
- learn about the physical and psychosocial domains of caring for both the person and their family
- the importance of self-care to support individual clinicians and healthcare teams is also a feature of this masterclass.

Content within this Masterclass aligns with elements contained in:

- NSQHS National Standards 2021
- RACGP Standards 2020
- Aged Care Standards 2020
- RACP Standards 2021
- Palliative Care Australia Standards 2018

Build your knowledge, skills and confidence in palliative care
